PROPOSALS
FOR PUBLISHING AN
HISTORY OF THE LIFE
OF THE
ILLUSTRIOUS
GEORGE WASHINGTON,
Commander in Chief of the American Armies during our revolutionary war with Great Britain, first President of the United States, and since, Lieutenant General of the Army.
BY JOSEPH SCOTT,
Author of the Modern Geographical Dictionary, in four volumes octavo.
OF the various methods which different writers pursue in order to convey useful knowledge to mankind, Biography stands confessedly among the first. There is none more interesting—none more instructive and entertaining. The histories of distinguished heroes, who have, by their exalted virtues, and noble and splendid actions, been the principal means of redeeming their respective countries from the corroding hand of tyranny, have in all ages been considered the most entertaining, instructive, and important to mankind. They afford example; and example is more powerful than precept It strengthens, by a plain and easy mode of analogical reasoning, the principles of the timid, determines and fixes those that are wavering, and ultimately lays the basis for that harmony and coincidence of sentiment among the citizens; from which only, a nation can hope to derive rank, consequence and stability.
Impressed with lively sentiments of the eminent virtues of that distinguished HERO and PATRIOT, the history of whose life I have undertaken to write; it was not till after much reflection I resolved on issuing these proposals. —The following considerations induced me to this; First, having obtained in the course of an extensive correspondence, with many gentlemen of talents and information, a large stock of original materials concerning the life of this Illustrious Citizen; to give form and body to these, in the manner of history, will preserve many important things that otherwise would most probably be lost. Secondly, as many of the most interesting transactions of his life, since he resigned his commission as Commander in chief of our revolutionary armies, are very imperfectly recorded, and little understood; yet the greater part of them being fresh in the memories of many, this must be the fittest time to embody them; before a succession of objects, which every day brings forth, wears off the minuter circumstances. There are many of these circumstances important and interesting; as it is universally acknowledged, that great actions, like immense rivers, flow from small beginnings.
CONDITIONS.
I. The Life of General Washington will contain nearly 400 pages octavo, printed on fine paper, and in a style of elegance equal to any work that has appeared from an American press.
II. It will be embellished with a striking likeness of the General, executed by one of the first artists.
III. Subscribers' names will be annexed, as patrons.
IV. Each subscriber is to pay two dollars, one half on subscribing, the remainder on the delivery of the work.
☞ Subscriptions in this city are received at No. 297 Arch street, next door to the north west corner of Eighth street.

PROPOSES to locate Warrants to the best advantage, on being allowed a reasonable compensation. He will attend at Philadelphia at the time of locating; and as not less than 4000 acres can be registered or located, will receive any number of warrants less than that amount, and class them with others so as to make up the quantity required.

The subscriber proposes also to attend on the land immediately after locating, and shew any section in which he may be employed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be registered and located,—the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locaters.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that we are at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traversed that tract: he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as Locaters, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory.

The Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA,
FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17.

To the honorable Thomas Jefferson, Esq. Vice President of the United States of America.

When I concluded my laſt addreſs to you, I then, ſir, communicated to you my intention to grant you a temporary reſpite, but at the ſame time gave you reaſon to expect, that, having convicted you of the moſt unfounded calumny, I ſhould at ſome future day, proceed to paſs ſentence upon you.

The performance of a taſk ſo unpleaſant has been rendered unneceſſary by an enlightened public, who, anticipating me, have already pronounced their fiat againſt you ;—and you are, and for a conſiderable time paſt have been, ſuffering the puniſhment due to your crime. Hence, ſir, it is probable that you would have remained longer unnoticed by me, had it not been for your publication in the Richmond Examiner, which ſome time paſt was ſent me by a correſpondent, and which I find your friends, the Democratic Printers, have, with their zeal uſual on ſuch occaſions, extenſively circulated.

Your extreme modeſty will, I doubt not, prevent you from claiming the merit of the publication to which I allude, nay, poſſibly, may cauſe you to deny it ; but as I am convinced in my own mind that you did write it ; and as I am alſo convinced that there is not one of your friends or partiſan ſo loſt to every ſenſe of decency and propriety as to have written it for you, I am determined to prevent your reputation from ſuffering by that your extreme modeſty ; and ſhall therefore moſt certainly conſider you as its author in the remarks, which I ſhall addreſs to you, upon it.

From my above declaration you may perhaps be led to conjecture that the ſentiments which I entertain for you are not the moſt favorable ; however, have but a little patience, and I flatter myſelf that I ſhall in the ſequel be able to ſatisfy even you yourſelf, Sir, that I am not to you guilty of injuſtice, and every perſon will allow that to your friends and partiſans I have ſhewn a charity as bouudleſs as they could decently wiſh.

And now, ſir, to oblige you, as I doubt not you will read your own production with more pleaſure than any thing from my pen, and to place before the public, for whom as well as for you I write, the ſubject of my future animadverſions, I ſhall here give you the before mentioned publication :—It is as far as it reſpects me as follows, to wit :

" With regard to Mr. Jefferſon, much invective has been diſcharged againſt him on the ſubject of Logan, the Indian chief, whoſe talk to Lord Dunmore has been publiſhed in the Notes on Virginia. The attack, was made by Luther Martin, of Baltimore, and the medium ſelected for the publication of this attack was equally worthy of the author, and of his production. —Martin aſhured his remarks into the world by the channel of the Britiſh Gazette printed at Philadelphia, under the eye and upon the riſk of the Britiſh embaſſador. This Gazette is perhaps the moſt felonious publication that ever diſgraced the Art of Printing. In anſwer to Martin, we ſhall here quote ſome detached paſſages from a letter written by the vice preſident. This letter bears date December 31ſt, 1797, and was addreſſed to John Henry, one of the Britiſh treaty majority of Senators in Congreſs, and who has ſince been governor of Maryland.

" Had Mr. Martin thought proper," ſays the Vice Preſident, " to ſuggeſt to me, that doubts might be entertained of the tranſaction reſpecting Logan, as ſtated in the Notes on Virginia, and to enquire on what ground that ſtatement was founded, I ſhould have felt myſelf obliged by the enquiry ; have informed him candidly of the grounds ; and candidly have co-operated in every means of inveſtigating the fact, and correcting whatſoever in it ſhould be found to be erroneous. But he choſe to ſtep at once into the newſpapers, and in his publications there, and the letters he wrote to me, adopted a ſtyle, which forbade the reſpect of an anſwer.—The ſtory of Logan is only related in the Notes on Virginia, preciſely as it had been current for more than a dozen years before they were publiſhed.—I learned it at Lord Dunmore's, and I find, in my pocket-book of that year, (1774) an entry of the narrative as taken from the mouth of ſome perſon, whoſe name, however, is not noted, nor recollected, preciſely in the words ſtated to the Notes on Virginia.— I remembered that general Gobſon was ſtill living, and knew that he had been the tranſlator of the ſpeech. I wrote to him immediately. He, in anſwer, declared to me, that he was the very perſon ſent by Lord Dunmore, to the Indian town ; that after he had deliverrd his meſſage there Logan took him out to a neighbouring wood ; ſat down with him, and rehearſing, with tears, the cataſtrophe of his family, gave him that ſpeech for Lord Dunmore ; that he carried it to Lord Dunmore ; tranſlated it for him ; has turned to it in the Encyclopædia, as taken from the Notes on Virginia, and finds that it was his tranſlation I had uſed, with only two or three verbal variations of no importance.

Theſe, I ſuppoſe, had ariſen in the courſe of ſucceſſive copies.—It eſtabliſhes unqueſtionably, that the ſpeech of Logan is genuine ; and that being eſtabliſhed, it is Logan himſelf who is author of all the important facts.—General Gobſon indeed ſays that the title was miſtaken ; that Creſap was a captain and not a colonel. This was Logan's miſtake. He alſo obſerves, that it was on ſome other water of the Ocean, and not on the Kanhaway, the family was killed.—If it ſhall appear on enquiry, that Logan has been wrong in charging Creſap with the murder of his family, I will do juſtice to the memory of Creſap. If, on the other hand, I find that Logan was right in his charge, I will vindicate, as far as my ſuffrage may go, the truth of a chief, whoſe talents and misfortunes have attached to him the reſpect and commiſſeration of the world. I feel extraordinary gratification, indeed, in addreſſing this letter to you, with whom ſhades of difference in political ſentiments have not prevented the interchange of good opinion, nor cut off the friendly offices of ſociety, and good correſpondence. This political tolerance is the more valued by me, who conſider ſocial harmony as the firſt of human felicities, and the happieſt moments thoſe which are given to the effuſions of the heart.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours, &c.
(Signed) THOS. JEFFERSON."

Here ends your publication, as taken from the Richmond Examiner ;—And here I end my preſent addreſs to you, ſtill remaining with all due reſpect to you.

LUTHER MARTIN.

Jan. 7th, 1800.

FROM THE LANCASTER JOURNAL.

MR. HAMILTON,

I ſend you for publication a liſt of ſome of the appointments and removals made by Thomas M'Kean, Eſq. Doctor of Laws, formerly Chief Juſtice of the ſtate of Pennſylvania, and lately elected to the office of Governor of the ſtate, by thoſe who believed him to be a ſtaunch republican, an old whig, " a man of 1776," a man, who would cement the bonds of ſociety and contribute to the happineſs of the people—a man who would oppoſe every principle of ariſtocracy, bribery and corruption.

Lancaster County.

The Prothonotary's office taken from John Hubley and given to William Barton.

Tench Coxe appointed ſecretary of the land office, vice Nathan Lufborough.

York County.

Gharles W. Hartley appointed Prothonotary in place of John Edie.

Mifflin County.

John Norris, Prothonotary, in place of Mr. Edmiston.

Luzerne.

Nathan Palmer, Prothonotary, in place of Lord Butler.

Jacob Hart, Recorder, in place of ditto.

Dauphin.

Joshua Elder, Prothonotary, in place of Alexander Graydon.

Northampton.

John Ross, Prothonotary, in place of John Arndt.

Chester.

Daniel Heiſter, jun. Prothonotary, in place of William Gibbons.

John Chriſtie, Recorder, in place of Richard Hannum.

Berks.

John Ross, Prothonotary, in place of Mr. Linton.

I have not leiſure to make the remarks I wiſh on the ſubject. To do juſtice to the very reſpectable characters who have been diſplaced, would open a field too extended to be traced at this time—would exhibit a ſcene too ſerious for momentary reflection.

I ſhall only briefly obſerve that at leaſt ſeven of the gentlemen who have been removed, were all zealouſly active in attaining the independence of America. That they ſacrificed their time, their money, and riſked their lives and the happineſs of their families in ſupport of American Liberty. That while Thomas M'Kean was in ſafety fulfilling the duties of a lucrative ſtation in civil life—all thoſe characters were either wading through fields of blood or placed in the moſt hazardous ſituations in the public councils.

Shall we aſk what ſervices to the country have been rendered by the men who are to ſucceed theſe worthy patriots. Is there more than one of them who has fought for the liberties of the country. " Oh! trumpery! O! Morris!" Where was William Barton at the commencement of the revolution ?—Where was Tench Coxe when lord Howe entered Philadelphia?

It is almoſt needleſs here to remark that every one of the diſplaced gentlemen were oppoſed to the election of Mr. M'Kean, and that every one of thoſe who are to ſucceed, were his ſtrenuous ſupporters.

But, in the name of Heaven, let me aſk, if party is to be ſupported by gifts of this kind, are there no worthier objects on whom to confer them ? Could Governor M'Kean, who has been preaching up the " glorious principles of American Independence"—the man who informs us that " the enemies of our glorious revolution can hope for no official power from him,"—could he, I ſay, not find among his friends a revolutionary character in each county to put into the officers of thoſe who dare to vote againſt him ; of thoſe who dared to exerciſe the ſacred privilege guaranteed to them by the Conſtitutions of their country and pointed out by the finger of wiſdom. Could he not find men more worthy than William Barton, Tench Coxe or Charles W. Hartley.

From all tyranny, corruption and uncleanneſs of heart, good Lord deliver us.

Port of Philadelphia.

The ſhip Farmer, captain Gibſon, of this port, is arrived at Reedy Iſland, 89 days from St. Sebaſtians ;—alſo, a brig from St. Jago de Cuba.

On Monday evening 6th inſt. the frigates Congreſs and Eſſex, with the veſſels under convoy, ſet ſail from Newport (R. I.) for their deſtination, in the Indian Ocean.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiſer.

In a new Sunday paper, publiſhed in London, called the VOLUNTEER, appears the following advertiſement :

" Let Prejudice ſleep awhile—Facts are ſtubborn Things.

" THE NEWTONIAN SYSTEM OF ASTRONOMY REFUTED, by MARTIN'S GRAND MECHANICAL DISPLAY OF THE UNIVERSE, which is now exhibited every day, (Sunday excepted), at Leiceſter-houſe, Leiceſter-ſquare.

" This curious and ſurpriſing Machine proves the Newtonian, or Solar Syſtem of Aſtronomy, to be founded in falſehood and error, and points out the defects of that ſyſtem, beyond all contradiction ; and, by its Mechanical Powers, performs the revolutions of the Earth and Heavenly Bodies, with accuracy, to a moment of time ; it ſhews, by inſpection, the longitude of the Sun, Moon, or Stars, to any given Meridian of the Earth, to a mile in diſtance ; explains the real Cauſe of the Tides ; exhibits Day and Night, with all their variations ; and the change of the Seaſons, and keeps the Earth in its true ſituation to the Heavenly Bodies, according to the known facts in nature."

On this advertiſement we take the liberty to make the following remarks.—The mean diſtance of the ſun from the earth is calculated at 96 or 98 millions of miles. At this diſtance, that body whoſe diameter is eſtimated at 890,000 miles, is diminiſhed to a ſmall apparent ſize, about 32 minutes in diameter. —Now, the fixed ſtars always preſerve the ſame relative ſituation to each other, and have the ſame apparent diameter—yet the earth, in its annual orbit, muſt be at ſome times, 192 millions of miles nearer to the fixed ſtars, than at other times. It is then enquired why the diſtance of 96 millions of miles, reduces the apparent diameter of the ſun ſo as to make an angle of 32 minutes only at the eye of a terreſtical ſpectator ; yet double that diſtance, 192 millions of miles, makes no difference in the apparent diameter of a fixed ſtar. How is this fact reconcileable with geometrical principles ? Philoſophers ſay, this is owing to the immenſe diſtance of the fixed ſtars. Is not this repugnant to every known mathematical and geometrical principle. A. B.

KINGSTON, (Jam.) Dec. 7.

" His majeſty's ſhip Solebay, capt. Poynets, arrived on Monday from a cruize, and brought in as prizes, two French corvettes, one of 20 the other of 18 guns, full of men ; a brig of 14 guns.—They were captured off Tiburan, and were from Port au Prince, which place they left the 20th ult. for Jamaica* with ammunition, &c. for the forces of Touiſſaint, which are beſieging Jacmel. There are 62 braſs cannon, with carriages complete, in the hold of one of the ſhips.

" The Admiral Nelſon was brought too off Port Morant, by a yellow ſided ſchr. carrying no colours, and was deſired to ſtrike to the arms of the French republic, but captain Manuel thought it better to proceed to Port Royal.

" By the Admiral Nelſon we learn, that a moſt diabolical attempt was lately made in the iſland of St. Andreas, to put that place in the ſame confuſion ſtate as a neighbouring colony, by ſome emiſſaries, from thence, but which was happily fruſtrated. Six of the ringleaders were executed, and ſeveral others apprehended, one of the inhabitants, we are ſorry to ſay, loſt his life at the onſet.

" The numerous privateers, which now infeſt this coaſt has put a ſtop to the coaſting foreign trade with this part of the iſland."

UPWARDS OF
Eighteen Thouſand Perſons
Of all ages, within nine months paſt, have found relief from
HAMILTON'S
Worm deſtroying Lozenges,

In various complaints ariſing from worms and from foulneſs or obſtructions in the ſtomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of ſimilar title ſo commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, ſufficient, not only to kill worms, but ſometimes to endanger the patient's life ; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being ſuited to every age and conſtitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is ſo mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the moſt delicate pregnant lady, or the tendereſt infant of a week old, ſhould no worms exiſt in the body ; but will, without pain or griping, cleanſe the ſtomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offenſive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diſorders.

RECENT CURES

Selected from ſeveral hundreds, the authenticity of which, any perſon may aſcertain either by letter or perſonal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

AFFIDAVIT,

MICHAEL DUFFY, reſiding at No. 47, Wilkes ſtreet, Fell's point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following ſtatement is juſt and true.

In the beginning of May laſt, my three children, a boy of ſeven, and two girls, the one five and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the ſame time, of a common fever, as I then ſuppoſed ; but was ſoon convinced the diſorder was cauſed by worms—they were frequently troubled with convulſion fits, and violent ſtartings in their ſleep, and with almoſt continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngeſt. I made immediate application to a phyſician of the firſt reputation, and his medicines were adminiſtered with a confidence of ſucceſs which only encreaſed our diſappointment. The children grew daily worſe, and I was abſolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngeſt ſoon appeared almoſt devoid of animation, and ſcarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this diſtreſſing moment, I was told that Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges had performed many cures in caſes equally deſperate—I immediately purchaſed a box, and gave each of them a doſe, which in a few hours produced the moſt deſirable effects ; the eldeſt voided a great number of very large worms, and the ſecond thouſands of ſmall ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch long—in the youngeſt they ſeemed to be conſumed, and had the appearance of ſkins and of ſlimy matter. I repeated the doſe agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all ſpeedily recovered a good ſtate of health which they ſtill enjoy, tho' five months have nearly elapſed ſince they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole appeared to be inevitable.

Sworn before me this 26th day of September, 1799. J. SMITH.

LETTER

From Mr. John J. Abercromby, Soap and Candle Manufacturer, No. 28, Bridge Street, Baltimore.

TO THE PROPRIETOR OF
Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges.

SIR, October 22, 1799.

I think it my duty to inform you that I have experienced the happieſt effects from your Lozenges, having been much afflicted for four years paſt, with various complaints cauſed by worms, particularly a conſtant pain in my ſtomach and bowels, frequent and ſevere head ache, with a general laſſitute and weakneſs, during which time I had the beſt medical advice that could be obtained from the moſt ſkilful phyſicians I could hear of, both American and European, without any alleviation of my diſorder.

I ſhould, too probably, have continued without relief, but for your Worm Deſtroying Lozenges, which brought from me an aſtoniſhing quantity of ſmall white worms, about the ſize of a coarſe thread, and in a ſhort time, I found myſelf perfectly free from all my former complaints, and have enjoyed a good ſtate of health for five months paſt.

I have conſtantly recommended your medicine, and ſhall as long as I live, having, from, my own experience reaſon to believe it to be an invaluable and unparalell'd remedy. Should any perſon wiſh for further information, I will with pleaſure ſatisfy their enquiries on this ſubject. JOHN J. ABERCROMBY.

SIR, July 10, 1799.

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my ſtomach, a dull, heavy, continual head ache, with a frequent ſwimming in my head, accompanied with dimneſs of ſight and ſometimes partial blindneſs, and was rendered incapable of attending my buſineſs, thro' loſs of ſtrength ; ſometimes could ſcarcely eat a morſel for two or three days ; when my appetite would ſuddenly become aſtoniſhingly voracious. I firmly believed myſelf to be in a conſumption, which muſt ſoon put a period to my life, when happily hearing of ſeveral cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Deſtroying Lozenges in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doſes, which expelled an incredible number of ſmall ſharp pointed worms : in ſhort, I now enjoy as perfect health and ſtrength, as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witneſſing its ſurprizing efficacy was induced to take a doſe though in tolerable health, which occaſioned him likewiſe to void a great quantity of worms of the ſame kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing thoſe dreadful diſorders with which I was afflicted.

A ſincere deſire that others in ſimilar circumſtances may receive the ſame benefit, is the reaſon of my ſending you this account.

Yours, very reſpectfully,
AQUILA GOLDING.
Hartford Road, 2 miles from Baltimore.

OBSERVE.

Thoſe who wiſh to avail themſelves of the benefits propoſed by the above remedy, ſhould be particularly careful as they value their money and their health, to guard againſt the numerous impoſitions daily attempted on the public, by applying to Mr. Wm. Y. Birch, Stationer, No. 17, South Second Street, who is appointed the only vender in Philadelphia.—Likewiſe obſerve that none can be depended on as being genuine, unleſs the ſignature of Lee & Co. is paſted on the outſide of each.

Purchaſers by the dozen or groce will receive a handſome allowance by application to Lee and Co. Market ſtreet, Baltimore.

Just Published,

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and dependencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples necessarily previous to calculating a Survey succeeded by seven surveys, the area of the four first is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, shewing how to take an inaccessible boundary, find the bearing and distance of the closing line without running it, also the distances to an inaccessible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offsets on to winding streams of water, shewing how to ascertain the area without the trouble of measuring the windings with chains and instruments—a crooked water course straitened, and a quantity of land on each side found by these offsets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many sub-divisions, leading into the most critical circumstances that can occur in practice; an example of Intersections, and an example shewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every station; examples shewing the method of measuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders sent to Joseph and James Cruckshank, Booksellers, No. 8½, High-street, Philadelphia, Bonsall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subscriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

Those who have the care of subscription papers for this work, are raquested to send their respective numbers as soon as possible, to whom the quota's will be sent agreeably to the proposals.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

From the commencement

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print many more than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustleton it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
